Creeks East of the Mississippi and Lower Muskogee Creek Tribe—East of the Mississippi, Inc.: Clarification of Previous Notices

March 23, 1982.

AGENCY: Bureau of Indian Affairs.

ACTION: Clarification of previous notices.

SUMMARY: A list of groups filing petitions for Federal acknowledgment that they exist as Indian tribes was published by the Acting Assistant Secretary—Indian Affairs in the Federal Register of Tuesday, January 2, 1979, on pages 116 and 117 (FR Doc. 78-36364). Two of the forty groups included were the Creeks East of the Mississippi, c/o Mr. John Wesley Thomley, and the Lower Muskogee Creek Tribe—East of the Mississippi, Inc., c/o Mr. Neal McCormick.

A final determination that the Lower Muskogee Creek Tribe—East of the Mississippi, Inc., under the leadership of Neal McCormick, chief, and John Wesley Thomley, vice-chief, did not exist as an Indian tribe within the meaning of Federal law was published by the Assistant Secretary—Indian Affairs in the Federal Register of Wednesday, October 21, 1981, on pages 51652 and 51653 (FR Doc. 81-30483). This determination was effective December 21, 1981.

This notice is to clarify the status of the Creeks East of the Mississippi, c/o Mr. Thomley, and the relationship which appears to have existed between this group and the Lower Muskogee Creek Tribe—East of the Mississippi, Inc., c/o Mr. McCormick. Evidence developed during the consideration period indicates that though these two groups were allied at various times, they are to some degree separate organizations. No arguments or evidence presented in the petition or the rebuttals, or in the evidence developed by the Acknowledgment staff, would support a finding that the Creeks East of the Mississippi, based at Molino, Florida, could be acknowledged as a tribe under 25 CFR 54.7, either as a part of the Lower Muskogee Creeks or as a separate entity.

Take Creeks East of the Mississippi, c/o Mr. John Wesley Thomley, are therefore determined to have been denied Federal acknowledgment under the finding previously cited as Federal Register Document 81-30483, which was effective December 21, 1981.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. John A. Shapard, Jr., Branch of Federal Acknowledgment, Division of Tribal Government Services, Office of the Assistant Secretary—Indian Affairs, 1951 Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D.C. 20245.

Assistant Secretary—Indian Affairs.
