SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of 1 year.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime; shall not illegally possess a controlled substance; shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below); and shall comply with the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall report in person to the Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released as soon as possible, but in no event later than 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. If this judgment imposes a fine, special assessment, costs, or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine, assessments, costs, and restitution that remain unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You will not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer.
2. You will report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
3. You will answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.
4. You will successfully participate in cognitive/life skills training or similar programming as directed by the probation officer.
5. You will support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.
6. You will work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
7. You will notify the probation officer at least ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.
8. You will not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, or administered; you shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and will not purchase, possess, use, distribute or administer any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.
9. You will submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to determine illicit drug use as directed by the probation officer; if directed by the probation officer, you will successfully participate in a program of testing and treatment (to include inpatient) for substance abuse until released from the program by the probation officer.
10. You will not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and will not associate with any person convicted of a crime unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
11. You will permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and will permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
12. You will provide access to all personal and business financial information as requested by the probation officer; and you shall, if directed by the probation officer, not apply for or acquire any credit unless permitted in advance by the probation officer.
13. You will notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.
14. You will not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the Court.
15. As directed by the probation officer, you will notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm your compliance with such notification requirements.
16. You will not possess a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon.

ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS:

1. The defendant shall submit to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer of his person, residence, vehicle, office and/or business at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall not reside at any location without having first advised other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall obtain written verification from other residents that said residents acknowledge the existence of this condition and that their failure to cooperate could result in revocation. This acknowledgment shall be provided to the U. S. Probation Office immediately upon taking residency.
2. The defendant shall abide by the "Special Financial Conditions" enumerated in General Order Number 99-12, filed with the Clerk of the Court on July 13, 1999.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall pay the following total criminal monetary penalties; payments shall be applied in the following order: (1) assessment; (2) restitution; (3) fine; (4) cost of prosecution; (5) interest; (6) penalties.

ASSESSMENT

RESTITUTION

$0.00

FINE

$1,000.00

ASSESSMENT

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100 for Count One of the Information, which shall be due immediately.

FINE

The defendant shall pay a fine of $1,000 for Count One of the Information. This fine shall be paid in full immediately. Any amount not paid immediately shall be paid while in custody through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. Upon release from custody, any unpaid balance shall be paid during the term of supervised release.

Unless the interest is waived, the defendant shall pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500.00, unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of judgment, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f). All of the payment options on the Schedule of Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

If the fine and/or restitution is not paid, the Court may sentence the defendant to any sentence which might have been originally imposed. See 18 U.S.C. § 3614. The defendant shall notify the Court of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay.

All criminal monetary penalty payments are to be made to the United States District Court Clerk, 333 West 4th Street, Rm. 411, Tulsa, Oklahoma 74103, except those payments made through the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.
