15. The TRIBES was at all times relevant herein a tribal entity created and authorized under federal treaties and laws to maintain a police department which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. DEFENDANTS assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a tribal police force, the employment of police officers, tribal jail, the employment of tribal jailers and provisions of adequate medical, water, food and shelter for incarcerated persons, whether or not their incarcerations occurred according to the known processes and procedures of the TRIBES. DEFENDANTS is responsible for the conduct of its police and jail staff.

16. The identities of the individual DEFENDANTS', that is the elected, appointed officials and employees in service of the CITY, TRIBES, and US who are known and identified and others not fully known to the PLAINTIFFS. 17. DEFENDANTS Federal agent BEMER whose role was supervising and to command all law enforcement on Fort Peck and by the joint and several actions of the CITY, and TRIBES hiring police and jail staff, sharing the burden of coordination, transport, and incarceration of PLAINTIFFS each of the DEFENDANTS' have rendered themselves jointly and severally liable both in their official and personal capacities for the personal injuries occasioned by the inhumane conditions, dehydration, medical, and emotional distress, exposure to

NOTICE OF CLAIM

19. The PLAINTIFFS have filed a notice of claim with BEMER, the CITY and TRIBES officials.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

20. PLAINTIFFS state they are all indigent and some are mentally and physically handicapped.

21. PLAINTIFFS request the U.S. Attorney General to intervene on their behalf under the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title II, Sec. 204, due to the disparity of adherence to the law.

22. PLAINTIFFS request the Honorable Court to appoint an attorney licensed to practice before the Court for them as PLAINTIFFS certify the case is of general public importance, authorized by the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title II, Sec. 204(a).

23. PLAINTIFFS as indigent American Indians request the Honorable Court to waive any and all fees authorized by the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title II, Sec. 204(a).

24. PLAINTIFFS state they are victims due to the failure of all Law Enforcement Officers not providing them with due process and equal protection of the laws due to the fact their substantive rights were inhumanely violated.

25. The events complained of are a continuous course of action conducted under the color of federal, tribal and state law and from PLAINTIFFS view are continuing.

STATEMENT OF FACTS REGARDING THE WINO ROUND UP

26. The CITY is surrounded by residential housing built and owned by the TRIBES.

27. The CITY is host to North East Montana's oldest rodeo variously known as parade, festivities and the Wild Horse Stampede and Professional Rodeo Cowboy Association's Rodeo which is largely a white Anglo-Saxon event conducted on Indian Lands within the exterior boundaries of Fort Peck, (PRCA).

28. The DEFENDANTS contend with public drunkenness, drug abuse, homeless persons pan handling, public defecation and urination by American Indians when the DEFENDANTS allow for the sale of alcohol to these American Indians within the exterior boundaries of Fort Peck which is directly related to the racial classification and profiling of the American Indians as alcoholic's when the sale and possession of any intoxicant is in direct violation of 18 U.S. Code § 1154, Intoxicants dispensed in Indian country⁵ and 18 U.S. Code § 1156, Intoxicants possessed unlawfully.⁶

29. In weeks or months prior to the July 12 and 13, 2013 PRCA, the DEFENDANTS' by and through their officials and employees made provisions for overtime service of police and jail staff, directed the officers to utilize both CITY and TRIBES handcuffs, paddy wagons and police cars to sweep the streets of the CITY and its immediate environs even though in the midst of and beyond the CITY limits located within the exterior boundaries of the Fort Peck are Assiniboine and Sioux property, also known as Indian Country defined under 18 U.S.C. § 1151.

30. The DEFENDANTS' sweep the streets of the CITY removed 30 to 50 individuals to curb the American Indian presence.

31. The DEFENDANTS' sweep was so successful that they overwhelmed the CITY and TRIBES physical and human resources. The CITY and TRIBES were unable to provide adequate transportation and so packed the PLAINTIFFS into vehicles which were not adequately vented or cool and caused dehydration of all, prostration of some and loss of consciousness of at least one PLAINTIFFS.

32. The Tribe's jail water and sewage system was disabled, and without medical staff and so the incarcerated PLAINTIFFS were kept without medical treatment, prescription medications prescribed by their physicians, water, or toilet facilities.

33. The DEFENDANTS' CITY and TRIBES policing officers on the street did not charge, book or make records of their activities and therefore did not identify many of the person's incarcerated and the identity of the DEFENDANTS CITY's arresting officers was likewise hidden.

34. By virtue of the overwhelming of the DEFENDANTS entities' human and physical resources, PLAINTIFFS were confined in the jail's exterior basketball courts, one for men and one for women. Women were provided a blanket and a pot in which to relieve themselves. Men were instructed to urinate through the fence. Some of the male PLAINTIFFS will testify that they were unable to get near the fence and so were forced to "pissed or shit their pants."

35. The PLAINTIFFS hope to disclose that one or more of the five individuals incarcerated in the Wino Round Up have subsequently died and their deaths accelerated or caused by the physical stresses experienced during the incarcerations.

36. The length of incarcerations varied from a few to more than 24 hours.

CAUSE OF ACTION

CLAIM I. BIVENS CLAIM

37. PLAINTIFFS do not know the names of DEFENDANTS' that share liability therefore these PLAINTIFFS invoke: the authority of BIVENS V. SIX UNKNOWN FED. NARCOTIC AGENTS, 406 U.S. 388 (1971).

CLAIM II. Personal Injuries and Denial of Medical Care Occasioned by Cruel and Unusual Punishment

DEPRIVATION OF RIGHTS UNDER THE FIRST, FOURTH, FIFTH, EIGHTH, AND FOURTEENTH AMENDMENTS AND

42 SC SEC. 1983

38. PLAINTIFFS reallege and incorporates by reference all of the allegations set forth in the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein again.

39. The conduct and actions of the DEFENDANTS entities and their elected and appointed officials and employees occurred by acts in concert with one another and under color of state, and tribal law.

40. The DEFENDANTS entities and their elected and appointed officials and employees authorized, directed and caused incarcerations without cause, bookings, and criminal charges; confinement without water, toilet facilities, and medical attention for the risks inherent in penning up the PLAINTIFFS and others similarly situated in a cement floored and chain linked fenced basketball court exposed to intense sun and thereafter a sudden and violent rainstorm. After the DEFENDANTS' efforts to shield the incarcerated PLAINTIFFS by placing tarps over the basketball courts failed, the men were placed in an even tighter confinement within a windowless garage.

41. The DEFENDANTS'' acts were cruel and unusual, unjustified and unreasonable done by some negligently and by others intentionally and by some willfully and maliciously gradations of deliberations constituting disregard for the natural and probable consequences of their Wino Round Up without justification and in violation of the rights of the PLAINTIFFS as set forth in United States, Montana and Tribal Constitutions.

42. As a result of the foregoing, the PLAINTIFFS suffered the personal injuries and damages set forth herein above.

CLAIM II. Municipal And Tribal Liability For Constitutional Violations

MONEY CLAIM AGAINST THE CITY OF WOLF POINT AND FORT PECK TRIBES
42 USC SECTION 1983

43. PLAINTIFFS realleges and incorporates by reference all of the allegations set forth in the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein again.

44. The conduct and actions of the DEFENDANTS entities and their elected and appointed officials and employees directly caused the constitutional violations suffered by the PLAINTIFFS and are therefore liable for the personal injuries occasioned thereby.

45. The joint planning constitutes a conspiracy, a concert of action undertaken pursuant to the joint agreement of the police forces and therefore exposes not only the city to damage claims under the Civil Rights Act of the United States, but also the tribe's officials and employees.

46. Because of open meeting discussions and protests by some but not all of the tribal police and its prosecutor not only the tribal council but it's senior police and prosecution staff knew or should have known that hostility and indifference to the Native American's would cause personal injuries to all those incarcerated.

47. The DEFENDANTS' knew or should have known of the racial classifying, hostility and propensities of employees of the CITY of WOLF POINT Police Department, that some of the officers addressed American Indians as "Prairie Niggers " and for that reason exacerbated the risk of injury or actual injuries of those they had incarcerated.

48. As a result of the foregoing, the PLAINTIFFS suffered the injuries and damages set forth herein above.

49. On July 12th and 13th of 2013 the named tribal member PLAINTIFFS and others similarly situated fitting the vilified descriptions set forth herein experienced being sequestered in a mass detainment, arrest and incarceration by the combined police forces of the CITY and TRIBES without due process of law, cause, warrant, notice, benefit of Miranda, right to counsel, right to a telephone call and were not booked, and no criminal charges were lodged against the PLAINTIFFS by a directive from the elected Tribal officials acting in their official and personal capacities AZURE, ANKETELL, and WELCH who had all final policy making authority for the tribal law enforcement functions and with the CITY officials including MAJOR, COUNSEL, and HARADA, made provisions for dispatchers, drivers equipment and certified law officers for overtime authorization to detain and incarcerate PLAINTIFFS against their will in the tribal jail in Poplar Montana to prevent them from allegedly pan-handling during the PRCA hosted by the Wolf Point Chamber of Commerce in Montana; and as part of the Tribal directive none of the tribal members were to be charged with any criminal violations to avoid any judicial review and violated the rights of the PLAINTIFFS as described herein.

50. PLAINTIFFS were placed in inhumane conditions in the tribal jail without working water or sewage or medical staff causing PLAINTIFFS personal injuries and subjection to cruel and unusual punishments for the denial of medical treatment, medications prescribed by personal physicians, dehydration, and toilet facilities forcing them to urinate and/or defecate in the same location where they were forced to stand, sit, or laydown to sleep until their release on July 13, 2013 when no other class or race was subjected to the same treatment in violation their Fourth, Fifth, Eighth, and Fourteenth Amendment Rights.

51. The personal injuries which are subject of this lawsuit, have a three-year statute of limitation in the State of Montana and the injuries can fairly be described as dehydration, medical, and emotional distress for the exposure to heat, rain, and urine and feces occasioned by cattle-car transport of the PLAINTIFFS from the CITY and surrounding areas of Wolf Point, Montana to the tribal jail in Poplar, Montana.

52. PLAINTIFFS will discover whether PRCA knew of what is known to the PLAINTIFFS and DEFENDANTS' as the Wino Roundup.

53. The known DEFENDANTS' actions were contrived outrageous government conduct shocking to the conscience that no reasonable person would believe was an act in good faith. The DEFENDANTS' denied PLAINTIFFS their right to attend a public social event, parade, festivities and PRCA.

54. HEADDRESS acted on the direction of tribal executive board members AZURE, ANKETELL, and WELCH.

55. SUMMERS, MARTELL and COMBS acted on the direction of HEADDRESS and violated the rights of the PLAINTIFFS as described herein.

CLAIM III: FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT VIOLATIONS

56. These claims are brought pursuant to Section 1983 and 1988 to address abuse of authority under color of law.

57. All of the acts alleged herein against the DEFENDANTS' and their collaborators, or acting in conspiracy with them or at their behest or direction were begun, to the best understanding of the PLAINTIFFS to remove the American

Indian's from pan handling the Wolf Point parade, festivities and PRCA on July 12, 2013 lasting until the next day July 13, 2013. See Attachment 1 (Affidavits of some of the victims.)

58. Under the Fourteenth Amendments to the U.S. Constitution, and ICRA the policies and practices as applied to Enforcement of Arrest Procedures described in this complaint are unconstitutional because they lacked any probable cause, warrant, or criminal charge.

59. The DEFENDANTS and co-conspirators have adopted practices and procedures which violate due process, threatened and injured these PLAINTIFFS and those similarly situated substantive rights and as a direct consequence subjected them to cruel and unusual punishments for the inhumane treatment.

60. DEFENDANTS' pattern and practices investigated are documented by the US, Department of Interior, BIA KINGS's October 10, 2014 findings.

61. The policy and practices of BEMER, AZURE, ANKETELL, WELCH, HEADDRESS, MAJOR, COUNSEL, HARADA with final policy making constitutes an intentional choice to avail themselves of ambiguities in statute, and case law and obtain the advantage of qualified immunity for acts which violated and denied the PLAINTIFFS and those similarly situated substantive rights under the Fourteenth Amendment, and ICRA.

62. The policies and practices of BEMER, AZURE, ANKETELL, WELCH, HEADDRESS, MAJOR, COUNSEL, HARADA afforded their employees unbridled discretion and do not contain any procedural safeguards necessary to protect the PLAINTIFFS and public at large.

63. The policies and practices of BEMER, AZURE, ANKETELL, WELCH, HEADDRESS, MAJOR, COUNSEL, and HARADA have a substantial chilling effect on the Fourteenth Amendment and ICRA rights of the PLAINTIFFS and others not before the court.

64. As a result, the DEFENDANTS' have caused the PLAINTIFFS and others similarly situated, irreparable personal injury, harm and damages for which there is no adequate remedy at law.

65. As a legal consequence of the DEFENDANTS' violation of the PLAINTIFFS' Fourth Amendment rights, the PLAINTIFFS are entitled to recover damages and compensation for the personal injuries, physical and severe emotional distress and anguish they suffered.

CLAIM IV: DEFENDANTS' ILLEGAL IMPRISONMENT OF PLAINTIFFS AND THOSE SIMILARLY SITUATED

66. By and for this cause of action, the PLAINTIFFS hereby incorporate herein by reference all foregoing allegations.

67. The DEFENDANTS' incarceration of PLAINTIFFS and those similarly situated was without legal justification; lacking in probable cause, warrant, criminal charge intentionally designed to avail the DEFENDANTS of any wrong doing.

68. After detaining the PLAINTIFFS and those similarly situated they were released the next day after being detained illegally.

69. The circumstances of the illegal search, seizure and detention displays a practice and procedure of reckless or an intentional disposition to embarrass and inflict pain upon the PLAINTIFFS and those similarly situated all American Indians within the exterior boundaries of their reservation.

70. By detaining and handcuffing the PLAINTIFFS and those similarly situated in so public a place, and thereafter causing them to be incarcerated without probable cause, Miranda, or booking, the DEFENDANTS displayed a reckless or an intentional disposition to embarrass and destroy the reputation of PLAINTIFFS and those similarly situated.

71. The DEFENDANTS continued their reckless or intentional conduct, embarrassed and inflicted pain upon PLAINTIFFS and those similarly situated by subjecting them to inhumane, cruel and unusual punishments in conditions without medical attention, water or a toilet forcing them to stand, sit, lay, urinate and/or defecate in the same area.

72. The tribal employees BOYD, TROTTIER, WEINGERGER failed to act to prevent the deprivations to the PLAINTIFFS and those similarly situated.

73. KING and BOYD falsified information to circumvent the severity of the incident by lowering the number of victims in their writings.

74. PLAINTIFFS and those similarly situated have suffered personal injury for the outrageous government conduct for loss of constitutional, civil and due process rights under ICRA due to the fact the TRIBES have not codified ICRA in its Comprehensive Code of Justice and therefore is routinely ignored by the TRIBES, its officials, employees, agents and representatives, the Tribal Court and the Tribal jail; the TRIBES have not consistently provided the PLAINTIFFS and others similarly situated with a full time licensed lawyer judge, public defender, and prosecutor only when obtaining the funding under the VAWA denying all American Indians their rights to licensed attorney's in the Tribal Court.

75. PLAINTIFFS and those similarly situated suffered the above losses because the DEFENDANTS' made a practice and policy of encouraging and/or directing staff to avoid independent judicial review.

76. DEFENDANTS' and their staff acted negligently and intentionally to deprive PLAINTIFFS and those similarly situated and subject them to the personal injuries they have suffered.

77. As a proximate result PLAINTIFFS and those similarly situated have suffered damages as well as severe emotional distress and anguish.

CLAIM V: FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT VIOLATION

Section 1983 and 1988

78. PLAINTIFFS hereby reallege and incorporate all of the foregoing paragraphs of this complaint.

79. As described DEFENDANTS conspired against PLAINTIFFS and those similarly situated in cooperation and caused them to be detained without cause.

80. Although the DEFENDANTS' BEMER, AZURE, ANKETELL, WELCH, HEADDRESS, MAJOR, and COUNSEL were not present at the time of PLAINTIFFS' arrests, detainment and incarceration they are still liable under this claim because they conspired and established the policy and practice of allowing the arrests, detainment and incarceration without cause of PLAINTIFFS and those similarly situated without observing the constitutionally required safeguards to avoid independent judicial review.

81. DEFENDANTS' DEFENDANTS' BEMER, AZURE, ANKETELL, WELCH, HEADDRESS, MAJOR, and COUNSEL recklessly or negligently failed to protect the due process rights of PLAINTIFFS and others similarly situated persons by establishing a practice and procedure which encouraged their employees to avoid charging PLAINTIFFS and those similarly situated with any crime.

82. By policy and practice, the DEFENDANTS' DEFENDANTS' BEMER, AZURE, ANKETELL, WELCH, HEADDRESS, MAJOR, and COUNSEL, MAJOR, and HARADA encouraged their employees to incarcerate PLAINTIFFS' and those similarly situated without due process of law and criminal charge.

83. DEFENDANT BEMER failed to protect PLAINTIFFS and those similarly situated against DEFENDANTS' AZURE, ANKETELL, and WELCH'S directive for the contrived incarceration of PLAINTIFFS and those similarly situated as a part of their campaign against American Indian's and known targets of law enforcement on a continuous basis.

84. DEFENDANTS' AZURE, ANKETELL, WELCH, HEADDRESS, and HARADA directed and executed the conspiracy to incarcerate PLAINTIFFS and those similarly situated and to their deprivation, and HEADDRESS AND HARADA participated in the actions against the PLAINTIFFS.

85. As a result of these acts of misconduct, PLAINTIFFS and those similarly situated suffered personal injuries as set forth herebefore.

86. As a proximate result PLAINTIFFS' and those similarly situated suffered financial damage as well as severe emotional distress and anguish.

87. The DEFENDANTS' conspiracy and actions were willful and wonton, undertaken recklessly or intentionally with malice and indifference to the PLAINTIFFS and those similarly situated rights.

CLAIM VI: FAILURE TO INTERVENE

Section 1983 and 1988

88. PLAINTIFFS hereby reallege and incorporate all of the foregoing paragraphs of this complaint.

89. BEMER, AZURE, ANKETELL, WELCH, HEADDRESS, TROTTIER, BOYD, WEINBERGER, MAJOR, COUNSEL, HARADA, FREDERICKS, and PATCH were aware of intent to falsify the detention and incarceration of the PLAINTIFFS and those similarly situated to get them off the streets of Wolf Point Montana allegedly so they couldn't pan handle during the Wolf Point parade, festivities, and PRCA.

90. Likewise, other tribal, city and county elected officials and staff knew or should have known of the falsity of the arrests and incarceration against
