

APPENDIX FADDITIONAL MISREPRESENTATIONS THAT ENERGY TRANSFER INTENTIONALLY DESECRATED CULTURAL RESOURCES

Date	Author	Description	Statements
2/14/2017	Earthjustice	Website Publication: The Standing Rock Sioux Tribe's Litigation on the Dakota Access Pipeline	"[T]he lawsuit challenges the Corps' hasty and unexplained departure from its previous decision, and explains how the Corps ignored the Tribe's treaty rights and seeks to destroy culturally significant and sacred sites. It also explains how the Corps violated federal statutes requiring close environmental analysis of significant and controversial agency actions."
2/10/2017	Rainforest Action Network (Laurel Sutherlin)	Website Publication: RAN Statement on Final Loan Disbursements for Dakota Access Pipeline	"These 17 banks . . . have chosen to stand behind this abusive corporation . . . despite . . . months of savage abuses by security forces against nonviolent demonstrators, the destruction of sacred native American burial sites and documented threats to critical drinking water supplies for downstream communities." (quoting Lindsey Allen, Rainforest Action Network)
2/7/2017	Greenpeace USA (Jason Schwartz)	Website Publication: NoDAPL: Greenpeace Responds to Granting of Easement	[quoting Mary Sweeters:] "[DAPL's] construction has already desecrated sacred burial grounds and other historical sites nearby."
2/1/2017	350.org (Sabelo Narasimhan)	Website Publication: #NoDAPL: We Fight On	"The Standing Rock Sioux tribe, whose drinking water and sacred sites have been desecrated by this pipeline"
11/30/2016	BankTrack (Johan Frijns)	Website Publication: Global call on banks to halt loan to Dakota Access Pipeline	"Harm to Native areas has now already occurred when DAPL personnel deliberately desecrated documented burial grounds and other culturally important sites."
11/7/2016	BankTrack (Johan Frijns)	Website Publication: An open letter to the Equator Principles Association	"[T]he pipeline trajectory is cutting through Native American sacred territories and unceded Treaty lands. Harm to Native areas has already occurred when DAPL personnel deliberately desecrated documented burial grounds and other culturally important sites."
