11:05 a.m. Enter change of plea hearing before the Honorable Daneta Wollmann.

The Court notes the appearance of counsel. The defendant is present in custody.

The clerk administers the oath to the defendant.

The Court questions the defendant.

The Court reviews the plea agreement and advises the defendant of her rights.

The Court advises the defendant of the maximum possible penalties.

Ms. Collins reads the charges contained in the Superseding Information

The Court reviews the essential elements of the offense.

Comes now, Sonya Dubray, and enters a guilty plea to the charge contained in the Superseding Information.

The Court reviews the factual basis statement with the defendant.

The court finds that the defendant is competent and capable of entering an informed plea, is aware of the nature of the charges and the consequences of the plea, that the plea is knowing and voluntary and is supported by an independent basis in fact containing each of the essential elements of the offense, and recommends that the defendant be adjudged guilty of the offense.

Ms. Collins requests detention.

Mr. Erlandson contests detention.

The court denies the motion for detention.

11:27 a.m. Court is adjourned.
